We need pic combs and unscented soap. We could also use baby hats. Audrey will knit some. There should be a pattern in the office or on the bulletin board if others want to knit.

Sharon Thole reported on the Food Shelf. The way the Food Shelf is run is still an on going process. They are going to limit the number of volunteers to 5 or 6.

The flowers for church is going well. Kathleen thanked Rosanne Gregory for the beautiful gladiolas donated for the altar.

Deacon Rick and Father Joe have been doing some home visits. Sharon and Janice are each visiting a home bound parishioner.

Janice reported on the Parish Council Meal for Oct. 2. There are 37 reservations. People must sign up by September 27. Father Joe is going to bake dinner rolls for the meal. Rosanne will purchase disposable pans for the rolls. Rosanne, Mary, Deb and Janice will provide a pan of bars.

Father Joe is willing to make caramels for the December bake sale. The cost to the Women's Council is $25. The women would also have to cut and wrap the caramels.

The AED was discussed. The cost is approximately $1350. Members will check with training facilitators to see about training and the maintenance of the AED.

Mary will send Pat Bettenberg a copy of our Mission Statement for the website. Pat will continue to post the minutes.

The helper for Deb Stock is Deb Lubeley. She will be in on Tuesdays.

Audrey purchased the bulletin board for St. Edward's activities only. Dale Gregory installed it. The bulletin board across the hall is for community activities and diocese information.
