Old Business:

Deacon Jim's anniversary celebration went very Weill.

Turtle Town Art Fair Pie Sales was once again a big hit selling out very early. We sold 60 pies. Also sold 2 dozen doughnuts and coffee. There were some donations. Total was $1035. Discussion ensued regarding selling donuts next year. Doing so puts us in competition with Salem and their cinnamon rolls. Decision deferred until next spring.

Still checking into getting more aprons for the Deer Hunter's Dinner.

Father Joe was able to ride in the 4th of July parade thanks to Tim Hutt and Doug Longnecker. Father distributed 50 pounds of caramels or 650 bags. Our cost was $300. We purchased 2 nice banners for the golf cart Father rode in. He also made some caramels for funerals. They are in the freezer.

New Business:

Discussion regarding strategies for the next Turtle Town Art Fair which was tabled until closer to that date.

Meeting adjourned at 10:10

Next meeting August 14, 2024
