SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Charles de Foucauld

Charles de Foucauld (1858-1916) also known as Brother Charles of Jesus, was born to an aristocratic family in Strasbourg, France. He was orphaned at the age of six. By his teenage years he had rejected the Catholic faith. His adventurous spirit led him to join the French army which gave him the opportunity to travel.

In his 20s he resigned from the army to explore Morocco, a relatively dangerous undertaking. He was influenced by the strong faith of Muslims he met, which inspired him to begin to question his own lack of faith. When he came back to France, he returned to his Catholic faith.

On January 15, 1890, he became a Trappist monk. However, he felt his true calling to be the imitation of the life of Jesus. In fulfillment of this mission, he lived for a time as a hermit near a convent of Poor Clares in Nazareth. His devotion to Jesus in the Eucharist was so profound that he often spent hours before the Tabernacle. In 1901, at the urging of the superior of the Poor Clares, he returned to France to be ordained a priest.

After his ordination he went to live as a hermit with the Tuareg people in the Sahara Desert in Algeria. He spent 13 years there, learning the Tuareg language and culture. He made the first French-Tuareg dictionary and translated the Gospels into Tuareg.

Though his dream of establishing religious orders did not come true, St. Charles de Foucauld is the inspiration for lay associations, religious communities and secular institutes of laity and priests collectively known as “the spiritual family of Charles de Foucauld.”

Known as one of the pioneers of interreligious dialogue, Charles was assassinated in 1916. He was beatified in 2005 and canonized by Pope Francis on May 15, 2022. St. Charles de Foucauld, pray for us!

Blood Drive

Here we are at the last Blood Drive for 2024. It has been a great year for giving. Thank you as always for all the help you provide in getting the message out to your parishioners. Below is the message as usual, use what you want. And thank you again for helping .

The 4th of Longville's 4 Blood Drives, sponsored by the Longville Lions, will be held at St. Edward's Catholic Church on Thursday, October 31st, from 11:30 to 5:00. Anyone interested in giving, please call or text Pat Boen at 218-838-4202. October 31st is Halloween....so all of us volunteers will be in costume handing out to you, our trick and treaters...no tricks , please... special goodies !! We invite you to come in costume as well. We'll be taking pictures. Vitalant wants to share them on social media. What a day to give Blood !!! And, make no mistake, We want your blood !! We are known as the little town with the big heart. Thank you always, for being so generous.
