We are seeking a new Prayer Line coordinator.

Dianne Hipsher who has done this wonderful church ministry for the past 10 years is moving and will no longer be a part of our parishes. If you feel a call to this special ministry please contact Dianne or the parish office to find out more details.

Upcoming Visitors to our Parishes

Mission Co-op presenter for Freely Given Inc., Nic Davidson, will share his experiences about the work that his group is doing. A Second collection will be taken the weekend of July 12-13 for this Mission.

Father Daniel Nganga from Kenya will be back visiting our parishes the weekend of July 26-27.

We have helped him in the past with many wonderful projects, such as generators to pump water for crops, pews in the church, and rebuilding the rectory that he was assigned to. A Second Collection will be taken for his current project.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Carry Your Cross

Question: As Catholics, we talk a lot about “redemptive suffering” and “carrying your cross.” What does that mean practically in daily life?

Answer: When Jesus spoke these words, they would have sounded quite intense to his hearers. “Pick up your cross daily and follow me.” At the time, Jesus hadn’t yet been crucified. A cross was a Roman torture instrument. “Pick up the thing that tortures you the most,” Jesus seemed to say. Unfortunately, most of us have no real shortage of these in our life. To take up the cross isn’t to seek out new sufferings in our life. It’s to accept the life we have.

Of course, unjust or unhealthy circumstances should be rectified when possible. But there are always circumstances that remain out of our immediate control. It could be pain management, the defiance of our teenage child, or an unhealthy work environment ... but you need the paycheck to pay the bills. In difficult circumstances, it can be easier to blame, complain, or day-dream our way out of it. None of these are real solutions, since none of them accept the reality of the situation at hand. Those options only add to our suffering, since they damage relationships, fixate on the problem, or set up unrealistic expectations.

Instead, Jesus invites us to take up our cross — to look at the uncomfortable situation square in the eyes, take a deep breath, and do our best to be present to God’s grace in the moment. To love those in our path. To take things one step at a time.

GOD BLESS
