BLOOD DRIVE

The 4th and final Blood Drive for 2025, sponsored by the Longville Lions, will be held at St. Edwards Catholic Church on Thursday, October 30th from 11:30 to 5:30. These drives have become a meet and greet for our loyal donors and a place for newcomers to Longville to meet new friends. We pride ourselves on making sure our donors know that we appreciate them by providing a warm, friendly and professional experience. The Vitalant organization sends us very talented technicians that ensure a positive experience. We would love to have you join us. Please call or text Pat Boen at 218-838-4202 if you would like to donate. And, considering it is the day before Halloween, we'll have special treats, no tricks though.

Saturday, November 1, 2025 – NOT a Holy Day of Obligation (as the obligation is dispensed as the date falls on a Saturday) According to guidelines provided by the USCCB Committee on Divine Worship Office:

- No anticipatory Masses for All Saints are to be offered on Friday, October 31 (as the day is not obligatory and there is no proper "Vigil Mass" setting for this solemnity). Masses during the day of November 1 for All Saints are to be offered prior to 4:00pm.
- Ritual Masses are prohibited on November 1. Therefore, any Wedding Masses that may be scheduled for this day (prior to 4:00pm) are to utilize the Mass of All Saints Day, keeping proper provisions for celebrating Matrimony "Within Mass" on Solemnities.
- Liturgy of the Hours is to be for All Saints Day (Beginning on Friday, October 31 with Evening Prayer I and throughout Saturday, November 1, including the use of Evening Prayer II and Night Prayer after Evening Prayer II on Solemnities).
- Anticipated Masses for Sunday, November 2 offered on November 1 (after 4:00pm) are to be with the settings for All Souls'.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE

Serving Others

Question: I volunteer every once in a while. How can I incorporate serving the poor in my everyday life?

Answer: In the Gospels, Jesus is very clear about emphasizing outreach to vulnerable persons on the margins of society. These may be the materially poor, the disabled, the lonely, or any others whose circumstances drive them from mainstream society. We can all respond to Christ's call to love by incorporating direct service into our regular life routine. Here are some ideas to find your niche:

Consider your life. Before you look for direct service opportunities, consider your schedule, commitment levels, and personal gifts. When can you help out and how regularly? Where have you volunteered in the past that has felt like a good fit? Do you have any particular skills or personality traits that lend you to particular work?

Do some research. There are a lot of structured ways you can get involved in your community. Your parish might have a social concerns outreach program. If not, ask friends and family. A simple online search for local nonprofits can also expose you to new opportunities.

Be open to God's invitation. The chance to serve may be closer than you think. Befriending an elderly neighbor, widowed and far from children, is an act of serving the poor. Keep your eyes and heart open!

Rosary Leaders

We are looking for people to take a turn at leading the Rosary at both the 4 PM and/or 8:30 AM masses at St. Edward's.

Please see Janice Prucha at Mass or call the parish office if you can help.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK - REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

1st Reading Question: Moses needed to rely on his brother (Aaron) and his friend (Hur) to assist him in defeating the Amalekites. Can you think of a time when you really needed the support of your family or friends?

2nd Reading Question: Paul instructs Timothy to be persistent in relying on what Sacred Scripture teaches us. How do you use Scripture as a guide for your life?

Gospel Question: With the parable of the persistent widow, Jesus teaches the disciples about the importance of praying often to God. When do you find yourself praying?

Seven Sisters Apostolate

Mission - The Seven Sisters

Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop.

We are in need of a person for Saturday!

A person that is homebound, also qualifies as a perfect person to complete this mission.
