LAPS Ultrasound Project

In partnership with the Knights of Columbus Council in Wadena, the LAPS Ultrasound Project provides the men and women we serve access to free, compassionate imaging to see their baby's heartbeat and real-time movement (4D Ultrasound), fostering hope and informed choices. Through local fundraising and a matching grant, the Wadena Knights are working to equip LAPS with this vital technology, and thereby supporting families with care and dignity—one life-affirming image at a time.

Checks made payable to Knights of Columbus - Wadena (2107) can be mailed to: 315 E River Road, Brainerd, MN 56401 (218) 825-0793 or office@lakesareapregnancy.org to make a one-time or recurring donation to LAPS

Congratulations - The first one received enough money by Tuesday! They are now working on the second one and donations can still be sent.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE

Strike our Chest: Penitential Act

Question: When we say the Penitential Act at Mass, why do we strike our chest three times?

Answer: Our rituals and liturgical celebrations are filled with a variety of symbols, some of which also relate to our gestures and physical postures (e.g. kneeling, sitting, processing, making the Sign of the Cross). The custom of striking our breast three times during the "I Confess" of the Penitential Act of the Mass is one of those gestures that is loaded with symbolism.

The tradition of Christian's striking the breast (above the heart) is rooted in the image of Sacred Scripture, especially texts like Psalm 51 which speak of a "humbled contrite heart" or how God heals broken hearts, binding up our wounds (see Psalm 147:3). Early Christian writers like Saint Augustine of Hippo and Saint Jerome also refer to this custom in their writings.

Ultimately, this practice is an expression of our sorrow for those times when we have been guilty of faults and a sign that we are willing to take responsibility for our sins and failings. That we all perform this gesture together is also an act of solidarity, recognizing that none of us, regardless of where we are on our journey of faith, is without fault and the need for grace and forgiveness.

Seven Sisters Apostolate

We are in need of a person for Saturday!

A person that is homebound, also qualifies as a perfect person to complete this mission.
