WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Near-Death Experiences

Question: Are near-death experiences real?
Answer: There is a lot of curiosity and fascination with the idea of an afterlife and communicating with those who have died. In movies, television shows, and numerous books, people make claims about their ability to communicate with the dead, or having had a near-death experience. There is no objective way to verify any of this. While details about people and events can be surprisingly accurate, it is just circumstantial evidence that might be explained in other ways.

On the other hand, when people have unusual experiences, sometimes called near-death or out-of-body, it is real to them. They react with the emotions and thoughts that one would expect. At times, they report details they could not have known any other way, such as bits of conversation, or meeting people they had never known in this life. So certainly, to the person, they experience something. We believe in a life after death, we believe in the communion of saints. These things are not a contradiction to faith, but we should not base our faith on them, nor change our beliefs. They are unexplained and will likely remain so.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! – CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH
Goodness

In the beginning, goodness was all there was. And in the end, only goodness will remain.

The word “good” is repeated so often in the first verses of Genesis that it has become almost cliché. God sees what He has made, and He calls all of it “good” (Genesis 1:31). Likewise, on the very first page of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we read that God created man “in a plan of sheer goodness ... to make him share in his own blessed life.” (CCC 1). When we see goodness, we cannot help but think of God (Wisdom 13:1).

In baptism, the Holy Spirit gives us the sanctifying grace of justification, which is, among other things, the ability to grow in goodness through an increase in moral virtue (CCC 1266). Baptism, therefore, disposes us toward goodness, and the more we ask the Holy Spirit for goodness, the more it will be possible for us.

The Ministries Appeal focuses on the shared ministries of the Diocese of Duluth that no one parish can support on their own. Please watch your mailboxes for an Invitation to Give to The Ministries Appeal from Bishop Daniel Felton. Your gifts to The Ministries Appeal make our mission real for generations to come.
