St. Edward's Mission Projects

Soon the women's council will be packing newborn and hospice kits. Please check for the items needed on the hall bulletin board to make this mission a success.

We are again asking for your help. All donations, including monetary, may be left in the donation container located in the dining area.

Thank you for your past generosity which has always made this mission a success.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? -

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

End of the World

Question: What do Catholics believe about the end of the world?

Answer: We hear the phrase “the end of the world” casually today. Often in film or media, it means the end of civil society or the threat of human annihilation by natural disasters. For the Christian, our perspective is distinctly Christ-centered. Numerous times through the Gospel, Jesus notes that he will come again, even after he has ascended into heaven. The Church typically refers to this as the Second Coming of Jesus or the Latin “Parousia,” meaning “presence” or “arrival.”

We believe that Christ will come again, and at his Second Coming, temporal time will end. Human history will end, at least as we know it. However, it doesn’t mean that creation will be destroyed. The book of Revelation speaks of a renewal, indeed a “new heaven and a new earth” (Rev 21:1). Christ will come again in glory. Our souls will be reunited with our bodies. While our lives were judged individually at our deaths, which we call the particular judgment, something new will happen here. Theologians call it the general judgment or the last judgment, in which our deeds and the effects — for good or ill — will be known to all. For the early Christians, this second coming was hoped for! They knew it was the completion of God’s work of redemption for the human race. We, too, should pray with them, “Come Lord Jesus!”

“Easter blessings of healing, hope and joy in the Risen Lord!”

During this time of the year, Bishop Daniel and the Diocesan Personnel Board review clergy assignments. As part of that annual review, Bishop Daniel has asked Deacon Jim Clack and I to take on a new parish assignment effective May 1, 2026. On that date, we will both begin serving up at St Mary’s Parish in Deer River and St Josephs Parish in Ball Club.

I am happy to announce to you today that Father Timothy Deutsch has been assigned here as your new Pastor effective May 1st. Father Deutsch was raised in New Prague, Minnesota and has been a priest for over 30 years. He is very much looking forward to meeting all of you next month and beginning to serve you as your new Pastor.

I want each of you to know that I have truly enjoyed being with you for the last five years here at St. Edward’s and St. Paul’s. Prior to my taking my new assignment next month, we will have a chance to say good-bye to each other over the next few weekends after Mass.

Please keep Father Timothy, Deacon Jim and I in your prayers. Be assured you all will remain in ours and may God bless you all!” Father Joseph Fink

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED! – CONNECT WITH TRADITION AND GROW YOUR FAITH

Temperance

“For the grace of God has appeared bringing salvation to the entire human race...(teaching) us to reject godless ways and worldly desires,” reads Titus 2:11-12, “and in the present age to lead lives that are temperate, just and godly.”

This cardinal virtue of temperance is shown in the person who is master of his passions and his attachment to the world. “It ensures the will’s mastery over instincts and keeps desires within the limits of what is honorable,” we read in the Catechism (CCC 1809).

Temperance is not repression of feeling; it is an exercise of the will, a careful and calculated choice. In this way, temperance actually safeguards virtuous love, keeping it “whole and uncorrupted,” said St. Augustine. The practice of temperance is intimately linked to the virtue of chastity, which “protects the intimate center of the person...refusing to unveil what should remain hidden” (CCC 2521).

Cleaning Position Available

We are in need of someone to clean at St. Paul’s Church in Remer, 3-5 hours/week, with comparable wages, you can work at your own convenience. You may also be needed to clean after an event. Please contact the Parish office for more information and an application.
